

personal tax compliance

This schedule should be read in conjunction with your engagement letter and the terms of business.

1. Our responsibilities

- 1.1. We will provide personal tax compliance services to individuals as listed in the services summary, personal tax advice is excluded from these services.
- 1.2. We have based our work and scope on the income sources listed in the service summary, please advise us of any variation to this. Depending on the complexity we may charge you an additional fee to complete the self-assessment tax returns.
- 1.3. We will prepare your self-assessment tax returns together with any supplementary pages required from the information and explanations that you provide to us. After obtaining your approval and signature, we will submit your returns to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC).
- 1.4. We will calculate your income tax, national insurance contributions (NIC) and any capital gains tax liabilities and tell you how much you should pay and when. We will advise on the interest and penalty implications if tax or NIC is paid late.
- 1.5. We will advise you on possible tax-return-related claims and elections arising from information supplied by you, other than as regards tax credits and universal credit (see below). If instructed by you, we will make such claims and elections in the form and manner required by HMRC.
- 1.6. We will review PAYE notices of coding provided to us and advise accordingly.

2. Your responsibilities

- 2.1. You are legally responsible for:
 - ensuring that your self-assessment tax returns are correct and complete;
 - filing any returns by the due date; and
 - paying tax on time.
- 2.2. Failure to do any of the above may lead to penalties and/or interest.
- 2.3. Taxpayers who sign their returns cannot delegate this legal responsibility to others. You agree to check that returns that we have prepared for you are correct and complete before you approve and sign them.
- 2.4. To enable us to carry out our work, you agree:
 - 2.4.1. that all returns are to be made on the basis of full disclosure of all sources of income, charges, allowances and capital transactions;
 - 2.4.2. to provide all information necessary for dealing with your affairs; we will rely on the information and documents being true, correct and complete and will not audit the information or those documents;
 - 2.4.3. to authorise us to approach such third parties as may be appropriate, for information that we consider necessary to deal with your affairs; and
 - 2.4.4. to provide us with information in sufficient time for your tax return to be completed and submitted by the due date following the end of the tax year; to do this, we need to receive all relevant information in a timely manner. We may agree to complete your return within a shorter period but may charge an additional for so doing.
- 2.5. You will keep us informed of material changes in your circumstances that could affect your tax liability. If you are unsure whether the change is material, please tell us so that we can assess its significance.
- 2.6. HMRC will send you an agent authorisation code which expires within 30 days of issue. Please send this to us as soon as you receive it. This code will enable us to register as your agent with HMRC.
- 2.7. You will forward to us HMRC statements of account, copies of notices of assessment, letters and other communications received from HMRC, in sufficient time to enable us to deal with them as may be necessary within the statutory time limits. Although HMRC will have the authority to communicate with us, it is still essential that you let us have copies of any correspondence received, because HMRC are not obliged to send us copies of all communications issued to you.

3. Out of scope

- 3.1. The scope of our services provided to you will be only as set out above and all other services which we may offer are excluded. If you instruct us to do so, we will provide such other taxation, ad hoc and advisory services as may be agreed between us from time to time. These may be the subject of a separate engagement letter at our option. Where appropriate, we will agree with you a separate fee for any such work you instruct us to undertake. Examples of such work that you may wish to instruct us to undertake include:
- advising on ad hoc transactions (for example the sale of assets);
 - dealing with any enquiry opened into your tax return by HMRC;
 - preparing any amended returns which may be required and corresponding with HMRC as necessary; and
 - advising on tax credits and universal credit; these are, in effect, social security benefits, and your entitlement or otherwise will depend not only on your own circumstances but also on those of your household; we would require all relevant information to advise in this area.
- 3.2. If specialist advice is required, we may need to seek this from, or refer you to, appropriate specialists.
- 3.3. We will not accept responsibility if you act on advice given by us on an earlier occasion without first confirming with us that the advice is still valid in the light of any change in the law, practice, public policy or in your circumstances.
- 3.4. We will accept no liability for losses arising from changes in the law (or the interpretation thereof), practice or public policy that are first published after the date on which the advice is given.
